

May 2011	Identification of the project in the Glendale Growth Plan Survey of community needs
June 2013	Formal meeting of Glendale Community – Decision to try to purchase building
Feb/ March 2014	Feasibility and outline business plan (Jean Hamilton) Public Meeting to present and secure input to business plan
March 2014	Formal Vote by residents – 67% for the project
April to June 2014	Detailed business plan, designs and initial costings (Jean Hamilton and Dualchas) Detailed Review of finances by Trust Board member and commercial operate and subsequent amendments
April 2014	Scottish Land Fund application
May 2014	Scottish Land Fund awarded
May 2014	Project Manager Appointed (Jason Bold)
July 2014	Planning Permission Secured
May to Sept 14	Detailed technical Designs and costings to RIBA Stage 4 (HRI Architects and team)
May to Sept 2014	Revised financials, business plan, community engagement Rest of Funding Package Structured (Jean Hamilton)
Sept 2014	Coastal Communities Fund Application
Dec 2014	Coastal Communities Fund Rejection
Jan 2015	Application to Growing Communities Assets
March 2015	Purchase of Land
April 2015	GCA Stage 1 award
March 2015	Building Warrant Secured
April 2015 onwards February 2016	GCA Development Stage Community Engagement Programme including engagement days in July 2015 and Feb 2016 (Jason Bold) Formation of Alumni and development of Heritage exhibition Further technical investigations (HRI Architects and team)
Sept to Feb 2016	Revised business plan (Jean Hamilton) Further discussions with new funders to structure funding
Oct 2015	Formal Glendale Trust Board Sub group established
Feb 2016	Further community consultation on post operation engagement
April 2016	Applications for Funding
August 2016	GCA Funding bid unsuccessful